NYC Employment Rises 1.5%

- Employers in New York City added 63,600 workers in the 12 months ending February, a 1.5% increase.

- Education and health services (+37,400) and professional and business services (+20,500) were responsible for most of the new jobs.

- Trade, transportation, and utilities (-7,800) and manufacturing (-1,800) were the only sectors to lose jobs over the past year.

Wall Street Bonuses Reach $23.9 Billion in 2016

- This marked the first increase in bonuses in three years.

- Wall Street profits rose 21% in 2016 to $17.3 billion, their highest level since 2012.

- Employment in the securities industry rose to its highest level since 2008.

30-Year Mortgage Rates Average 4.23%

- Rates for 30-year conforming mortgages fell to 4.23% in the week ending March 23, after rising the prior two weeks.

- This marked the 18th consecutive week rates have remained over 4%.

- One year ago, rates were averaging 3.71%

About Our Research Division
Gregory Heym is widely recognized as an industry expert, and is a member of the New York City Economic Advisory Panel. Previously, he served as Vice President and Chief Economist for The Real Estate Board of New York. He received his B.S. in Economics from Saint John’s University, and his M.B.A. in Finance from Hofstra University. Visit terraeconomics.com for the latest economic headlines.