MIDTOWN MANHATTAN DUPLEX LISTS FOR $12 MILLION

CANDACE JACKSON AND LAUREN A.E. SCHUKER, MAY 18, 2012

The estate of Fred G. Peelen, a former InterContinental Hotels and Resorts president for the Americas, has put his 3,850-square-foot midtown Manhattan duplex on the market for $12 million.

A corner apartment with full views of Central Park, the property has three bedrooms and four bathrooms and was renovated two years ago. There's a wood-paneled library, a built-in wet bar and a meditation room. The property is on the 37th and 38th floors of Olympic Tower, across from Rockefeller Center.

Until his death earlier this year, Mr. Peelen split his time between the New York property and his homes in St. Thomas and Woodbury, Conn.

Daniela Rivoir of Brown Harris Stevens has the listing.
