ZEITGUIDE

2015 CULTURAL ALMANAC

An excerpt from the 2015 Zeitguide:

With cities oversaturated by glossy architecture, the pendulum is poised to swing to something more human. Artisanal architecture might just provide the momentum. To Mike Lubin, director of NYC real estate agency Brown Harris Stevens, that's a good thing. Luxury doesn't have to be a $30+ million glass box in the sky above Manhattan. It also can be a cozy wood-burning fireplace, a view of a garden beyond a bedroom window, or the patina of beautiful old wood floors. As Lubin said, "Good taste and great wealth don't need to be connected."
