

REAL ESTATE NEWSMAKER 2023 Trailblazer

For the fifth year in a row RIS Media has named Jeff Goodman as a Real Estate Newsmaker. This year he is recognized as a "Trailblazer". In past years, from 2018-2022, he was honored as a "Trendsetter".

In early 2022, when the Omicron variant was taking its toll on live in-person events, Jeff pivoted his popular NYC walking tours to another virtual series that included architectural talks, as he did at the beginning of the pandemic in 2020. As Covid rates started to decline last year he resumed the in-person walking tours while continuing to support his sellers and buyers.
