NYC Employment Up 2.3%

- Employment in New York City was 2.3% higher in May than a year ago, with 103,500 jobs added.
- Education and health services (+52,800) accounted for more than half this increase, while manufacturing (-2,800) was the only sector to lose jobs over the past year.
- The city's unemployment rate of 4.3% was unchanged from April.

S&P 500 Rises 17% in 2019's First Half

- The S&P 500 index posted its best first half since 1997, rising 17%.
- After a 14% decline in the fourth quarter of 2018, the S&P 500 rose 13% in 1Q19 and 4% in 2Q19.
- The Federal Reserve's indication they may lower rates helped overcome concerns about trade negotiations, and a slowing economy.

Mortgage Rates Fall to Lowest Levels Since November 2016

- 30-Year conforming mortgage rates fell to 3.73% in the week ending June 27th, their lowest level in 31 months.
- Mortgage rates have declined almost half a percent in the past two months, on hopes the Fed will cut short-term rates.
- One year ago, 30-year rates were averaging 4.55%.
