

Kendel Neidermyer Joins Leslie Singer's Top-Performing Team at Brown Harris Stevens

36.4K Unique Monthly Visitors

The Singer Team at Brown Harris Stevens(BHS), led by veteran real estate broker Leslie Singer, recently announced the addition of an incredible real estate expert, Kendel Neidermyer, to its growing team which ranks #21 in New York according to the 2024 RealTrends + Tom Ferry The Thousand List. The annual, national program ranks the top 500 agents and top 500 teams in the U.S. by transaction sides and sales volume. Neidermyer joins The Singer Team on the heels of receiving recognition from REBNY (the Real Estate Board of New York) at the 35th Annual Residential Deal of the Year Awards and transacting the highest-priced co-op deal at Brown Harris Stevens in 2023.

Kendel Neidermyer, a Manhattan resident for over 25 years, was trained in traditional haute couture techniques and her innate creativity and eye for detail make her adept at identifying the ultimate luxury property, staging, and interior design. She deploys a results-oriented, tenacious approach to business, never afraid to think big and take action to manifest her clients' dreams.

“We’re thrilled to be growing our team as we continue to work tirelessly on behalf of our magnificent clients. I really believe that your team makes all the difference to be resilient and get deals over the finish line,” said Leslie Singer, Licensed Associate Real Estate Broker with Brown Harris Stevens. “Our growth speaks volumes to the talent of our existing team and Kendel is a wonderful addition!”

“I’m so honored to be a part of the top producing Singer Team. I look forward to growing the business and collaborating with such a talented group of women with such high standards of brand values and integrity,” said Kendel Neidermyer.

Singer, a Top 5 agent at Brown Harris Stevens, is a luxury real estate specialist who was recently honored by REBNY (the Real Estate Board of New York) at the 35th Annual Residential Deal of the Year Awards for a remarkable co-op transaction of a combination trophy Penthouse with Central Park views. The deal exemplifies the importance of buyer representation and necessitated a full suite of professionals and daily collaboration with the seller’s broker for over a year to get to the closing table.

“REBNY’s recognition is a true honor as this deal goes down as one of the most complex in my career. The seller’s broker, Amy S. Katcher of The Corcoran Group, is a fabulous collaborator, and we worked hand in hand for well over a year overcoming unique and unforeseen hurdles to complete this transaction together,” adds Singer.

As a lifelong New Yorker, Singer is a true advocate for her clients, which goes far beyond real estate. She consults with clients on their new neighborhoods and advises on schools, restaurants, the latest exhibits and culture in the area, design direction, and much more. Her connections are endless, resulting in lifelong relationships and genuine friendships with any clients who come her way.

<https://www.mannpublications.com/mannreport/2024/07/30/kendel-neidermyer-joins-leslie-singers-top-performing-team-at-brown-harris-stevens/>